

Baltimore, MD

MD1604: I-95, 2475 ft. West of Russel St., w/s, f/n

MD1604 grabs the attention of a continuous flow of I-95 southbound commuter and transient traffic just south of Baltimore City. Advertisers can gain high RHR visibility on the most-trafficked corridor between Baltimore and Washington, DC. Interstate 95 is heavily traveled by local traffic as well as a constant flow of interstate traffic from points north (Wilmington, DE, Philadelphia). This outstanding display is read by five lanes of southbound traffic on Interstate 95.
